

LANG IN PARIS

SPRING 2016 SEMESTER

For Spring 2016, Eugene Lang College will offer a special program for students in collaboration with Parsons Paris. The emphasis will be on an interdisciplinary liberal arts curriculum rooted in French literature, culture, thought, and language, yet with the opportunity to consider a studio or design elective. Classes will remain small to foster community, and the curriculum will be highly contextualized for the city of Paris. Courses will be taught in English, though students also register in an appropriate level of French language.

Courses

Paris and The Personal Essay

Considering Clothes

French Language

Liberal Arts or Studio Elective

Applicants should be in good academic standing, with at least one semester completed by the time of departure; freshmen and sophomores in particular are encouraged to apply.

Applications due
September 25, 2015

For more information contact Lang Study Abroad Advising langstudyabroad@newschool.edu